Your invitation

As a partner in the NBTA Bulk Tanker Day we'd like to invite you to attend this event.

With four sessions covering:

- Looking ahead - the economic and technology outlook and implications
- Managing safety - new technologies and how to measure performance
- Managing people - mental and physical health as well as recruitment, retention and training
- Maximising productivity - PBS, route access, new designs and technology to deliver improved outcomes

Break out groups will be run throughout the day including a facilities tour, exhibition tour and TERP's demonstration.

$100 Ticket Discount to our Customers

As a partner in the event we are able to offer you a $350 ticket, which is a $100 discount on the registration price for non-members of NBTA.
